57th Annual Great Lakes Invitational
Van Andel Arena • December 28-29, 2023

History of the Great Lakes Invitational

The Great Lakes Invitational Tournament continues to be the top holiday tournament in the country. Many have challenged the GLI's stature, but none has matched its continued success.

This year's 57th annual tournament will be staged on December 28-29 for the second time at Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids, with Alaska and Ferris State joining Michigan Tech, and Michigan State.

The tournament was born out of a conversation between then-general manager of Olympia Stadium Lincoln Cavalieri, Michigan Tech's legendary coach John J. MacInnes, and Detroit Red Wings scout Jack Paterson. The three men were discussing the lack of American-born players in the National Hockey League and concluded that a prestigious collegiate tournament could make a difference by promoting interest in hockey among young athletes in the general public. American Airlines vice president Jack Tompkins, a former University of Michigan goalie and member of the Detroit Red Wings organization, championed their vision as well, and together in 1965 they founded the Great Lakes Invitational hockey tournament.

The GLI has grown into one of the premier college and holiday sporting events in the country, originating at Detroit's Olympia Stadium. Michigan Tech, the host for the tournament since its inception, added Michigan as a co-host in 1976 and moved into the Joe Louis Arena in 1979 and Little Caesars Arena in 2018. A tournament wasn't held in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the 2021 event was a showcase with Michigan Tech playing at Michigan and Michigan State. The Spartans also hosted Western Michigan. The 2022 tournament didn't include Michigan for the first time since 1973 and moved west to Van Andel Arena in Grand Rapids where Western Michigan took home its fourth title. Alaska will make its debut at the 2023 tournament.

The GLI field is set for the next four years with Northern Michigan and Western Michigan competing in 2024, Miami and Ferris State in 2025, and Western Michigan and Notre Dame in 2026.

As for attendance, the GLI is unmatched among college hockey holiday tournaments. In 1999, the GLI went over the one-million mark in total attendance.

Named after Michigan Tech's legendary coach, the John MacInnes Trophy is awarded at the conclusion of the Great Lakes Invitational to a player for his play in the tournament.

Past winners include Hobey Baker winner Brendan Morrison from Michigan — who was the only player to receive the honor three times, NHL veteran Bob Essensa formerly of Michigan State and Michigan Tech standout Greg Hay.

Three goaltenders were named the winner of the award from 2012-14. Michigan's Steve Racine allowed only two goals in 2014, Western Michigan's Lukas Hafner claimed the 2013 award at Comerica Park, and Michigan Tech's Pheonix Copley earned the 2012 hardware after posting back-to-back shutouts. The last time someone from Michigan State green hoisted the trophy came back in 2009 courtesy of Brett Perlini.

Five players were named MVP after their team's did not win the tournament title, and twice the MVP did not even play in the championship game.
